Rules and Regulations

Thank you for your interest in being a part of the Scottish Tartan Festival. The festival is an annual event that takes place at Scotland Farms in Minden, Louisiana.

1. Both copies of the application must be signed and returned with payment no later than March. 31, 2021. Please keep a copy for your own records.
2. An accepted application is a commitment to the festival, therefore no vendor fees are refunded for cancellations, or inclement weather. The festival will take place rain or shine unless otherwise notified.
3. Vendors may set-up their booths on Friday from noon to 8 PM, or on Saturday morning beginning at 7:00 AM. Please be ready by 9:00 AM. Please bring your own tent, tables, chairs, etc as none are provided by the festival. It is highly recommended that you make sure you have sufficient weights to secure your tent since it has been known to get a little windy at times. No cars will be allowed on the grounds (after set up) for the protection of the festival patrons.
4. Food vendors must be in compliance with the La. Dept. of Health and Hospitals and supply us with a Certificate of Liability from your insurance.
5. Spaces are limited and will be assigned on a first come basis but we will make sure that like merchandise are not set up next to each other.
6. This is a family event, so please keep this in mind when displaying items you have for sell. We reserve the right to have you remove any merchandise we deem inappropriate.
7. Pets are welcome on the grounds provided they remain leashed. Animal wastes are your responsibility. And all pets must have up-to-date rabies shot tags.
8. If you have any questions, please contact Shelia Hoh: ph# 318-393-2693 or email: scottishsociety@gmail.com Acceptance will be notified by email.

The Tartan Festival, presented by the Scottish Society of the Louisiana Highlands, is not responsible, nor liable for any injury to vendors or employees, loss, damages, or theft of any property belonging to vendor or employees. In signing this application you agree to all terms, rules, and regulations hold harmless Scotland Farms, all society members and volunteers.

Please sign both copies and return with your payment. Thank you for being a part of one of the most unique festivals in Louisiana.
